The image displays the first 13 measures of a musical score for 'Fugue in A minor' by Frédéric Chopin, arranged by Tony Urbainczyk. The score is written for violin and cello in A minor, 3/4 time, with a tempo marking of 'Andante'. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The score is presented in five systems, each with a measure number (1, 4, 7, 10, 13) at the beginning of the first staff. The violin part is on a treble clef staff, and the cello part is on a bass clef staff. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, accidentals, and slurs. The first system shows the initial entry of the cello with a half note F# and a quarter note G, followed by a half note A and a quarter note B. The violin part has a whole rest. The second system continues the cello's melody with a half note C and a quarter note D, followed by a half note E and a quarter note F#. The violin part has a whole rest. The third system shows the violin entering with a half note F# and a quarter note G, followed by a half note A and a quarter note B. The cello part has a whole rest. The fourth system continues the violin's melody with a half note C and a quarter note D, followed by a half note E and a quarter note F#. The cello part has a whole rest. The fifth system shows the cello entering with a half note F# and a quarter note G, followed by a half note A and a quarter note B. The violin part has a whole rest.
